Aloha Parents and Guardians,

Glory to you! Amidst the “busy”ness of the holiday season, I would like to invite you and your families to take some time to sit back, relax, and enjoy the beautiful voices of your children. Our annual school-wide Christmas Musical Performance, entitled “Gloria, The Christmas Angel”, written by Scott A. Asalone and Mary Jo Scandin, will take place on Friday, December 19, 2014 at 9 am in Star of the Sea Church.

“Gloria, The Christmas Angel” is a wonderfully delightful Christmas Story that is both entertaining and profound. Deep down inside her, Gloria finds the power to believe in herself when no one else does. She’s able to rise to the task, particularly when she meets a child born in poverty who turns out to be a very important person: God’s Son. Gloria does not only bring good news to the poor, but she also tells the good news of the poor: that those who have little or nothing are important people. They’re God’s own children.

The entire student body will be participating in this wonderful “Christmas Story” that is co-directed by Mrs. Herrera and Mrs. Githere. Non-cast roles in grades 1-5 are asked to come to school in Christmas/Church attire while our non-cast middle school students are asked to come dressed in black/dark blue and white attire. Students will be provided with Christmas leis by their homeroom teachers.

On December 19, 2014, children should report to school at the usual time and must return to their homerooms after the program. While the students collect their belongings and prepare for dismissal, we invite you to visit our PTG bake sale and purchase some holiday goodies following the performance. It is a mini-day, and dismissal time for all students will be at 10:30 a.m.

Your child’s participation in the program is important to us. However, we do understand that early travel plans may have been scheduled and therefore we ask that you notify your child’s homeroom teacher if they are not able to attend by, Friday, December 12th, so that we can plan accordingly.

We look forward to having you join us in this special celebration and may the joy and peace of Christmas be with you now and throughout the year.

God Bless,

Margaret Rufo
Interim Principal
